RESOLUTIONS FOR A NEW YEAR

Introduction: The Bible teaches that God ordained two institutions: the home and the local New Testament Church. Matthew 16:18, Ephesians 5:22—6:4. If this be true, and it is, we should resolve to do all that we can to strengthen the home and the church.

With this being said, then what can we do in regard to our relationship with these institutions?

FIRST: SEARCH THE HOME.

LUKE 15:8

"...light a candle, and sweep the house..."

Nothing is so careless as the way many take care of the home. No diligence in seeing what has been lost. Seemingly no attention to the influences that have entered the home.

In Joshua 24:14-15, "...and put away the gods..."

In order to put away the gods, you must first identify the gods that you have allowed to infiltrate your home.

By the way, Joshua also proclaimed, "...but as for me and my house, we will serve the Lord."

Illustration: Several years ago, a couple came to me about their teenage son. He was changing drastically and going in the wrong direction. I asked them to check his room when they had an opportunity. They discovered dirty magazines. Today, it is filth on the cell phone.

Parents! Search your home.

SECOND: STRENGTHEN THE HEART.

I TIMOTHY 4:8

"For bodily exercise profiteth little: but godliness is profitable unto all things..."

Just like the physical heart, a muscle, is strengthened by physical exercise, the spiritual heart is strengthened by spiritual exercise.

Matthew 22:37, "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart."

How do we accomplish this? By what strengthens you spiritually. This is where the local New Testament Church comes into the picture.

Keep your church strong because that is the heart medicine, the heart exercise for the child of God. The church provides:

1. Prayer 2. Preaching 3. Peace 4. Practical fellowship 5. Personal soul winning

II Timothy 4:2 "Preach the word...reprove, rebuke and exhort..."

Acts 20:7, "...upon the first day of the week...Paul preached unto them."

Hebrews 10:25, "Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together..."

Acts 2:42, "And they continued steadfast in the apostles doctrine and fellowship..."

Parents, church member, keep the church strong. It represents your spiritual being, your heart. If it becomes weak or defiled, your family will collapse.

THIRD: SEEK HELP.

II TIMOTHY 2:15

"Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth."

In Ecclesiastes 4:12, the Word of God speaks of a threefold cord. It says that a threefold cord is, "not quickly broken."

THE PRESERVED WORD

Most fundamentalists will agree that the King James Bible contains the very words of God; yet, many of us are dehydrated. We believe the King James Bible, but we don't read it. How much have you read this week? We believe the Bible, but we don't learn it. We believe the Bible, but we don't meditate upon it. How long do you spend each week meditating upon the Bible? Psalm 1:1-2, "Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful. But his delight is in the law of the LORD; and in his law doth he meditate day and night." Yes, you believe it, but how much have you memorized? If someone put a gun to your head and said, "Quote ten verses or I'll pull the trigger," would you be in Heaven soon? Would you have to say "Jesus wept" ten times? We believe the King James Bible from cover to cover, but many of us never open the cover. If the King James Bible is the Word of God preserved by God Almighty, then God help us to get in it and read it and study it.

Don't come to me with your stinking invisible church doctrine. Don't come to me with your stinking bloodless mercy seat. Don't come to me with your stinking falling from grace. Don't come to me with your stinking baptismal regeneration. Don't come to me with your stinking sacramental salvation. Don't come to me with your stinking confirmation salvation. Don't come to me with your stinking life-style evangelism. Don't come to me with your stinking mid-tribulation rapture. Don't come to me with your stinking NIV Bible. Don't come to me with your stinking RSV or ASV or NASV or your New King James or your New Scofield. Get your stinking feet out of my drinking water!

Let us, as fundamentalists, stand and hold our shoulders back and our chests out and say, "We proudly believe the King James Bible contains the preserved words of God Almighty." While we hold the Bible high, let's not keep it shut. Let's open it, and live in it, and study it, and learn it, and teach it, and memorize it.

Released From Tithing?

Years ago a man knelt with his pastor, and prayed as he committed himself to God to tithe his income. His first week's pay was $10 and the tithe $1. As he grew older he became more prosperous; his tithe was $7.50 a week, then $10. He moved to another city and his tithe was $100, then $200, then $500! He sent his pastor a wire, "Come to see me." The pastor arrived at the man's beautiful home. They had a good time talking over old times. Finally, the man came to the point. "Do you remember that promise I made years ago to tithe? How can I get released?"

"Why do you want to be released?"

"It's like this," the man replied, "when I made the promise I only had to give a dollar, but now it's $500! I can't afford to give away money like that."

The old pastor looked at his dear friend and said, "I'm afraid we cannot get released from the promise, but there is something we can do. We can kneel and ask God to shrink up your income again so you can afford to give a dollar."

A Teenager's Code

In submitting her ten commandments the youthful author, Virginia Chose, suggests that "if every teen-ager would follow these simple rules, the world would be a safer place to live in." To which one may add "Amen."

1. Don't let your parents down. They brought you up.
2. Stop and think before you drink.
3. Ditch dirty thoughts fast, or they'll ditch you.
4. Show-off driving is juvenile. Don't act your age.
5. Be smart: Obey. You'll give orders yourself someday.
6. Choose your friends carefully. You are what they are.
7. Choose a date fit for a mate.
8. Don't go steady unless you're ready.
9. Go to church regularly. God gives a week. Give Him back some hours.
10. Listen to the Gospel. The soul you save may be your own.

Resolutions penned by William Booth

Founder of The Salvation Army, in December 1849, and found-faded and worn -after his death.

THAT I will rise every morning sufficiently early (say twenty minutes before seven o'clock) to wash, dress and have a few minutes, not less than five, in private prayer.

THAT I will as much as possible avoid all that babbling and idle talking in which I have lately so sinfully indulged.

THAT I will endeavor in my conduct and deportment before the world and my fellow servants especially to conduct myself as a humble, meek and zealous follower of the bleeding Lamb, and by serious conversation and warning endeavor to lead them to think of their immortal souls.

THAT I will read no less than four chapters in God's Word every day.

THAT I will strive to live closer to God, and to seek after holiness of heart and leave providential events with God.

THAT I will read this over every day or at least twice a week.

God help me, enable me to cultivate a spirit of self denial and to yield myself a prisoner of love to the Redeemer of the world. Amen and Amen.

A person who "knows everything" has a lot to learn.

It's hard for children to learn manners when they never see any.

The fellow who has the right to boast doesn't have to do it.

What is the threefold cord? 1. The family. 2. The church. 3. The school.

Parents! Do not expect your children to survive spiritually when you leave out the education process.

The sad truth is that parents have abdicated their responsibility for training their children by assuming the public – secular school system can be trusted to teach their children truth.

God never intended for us to win the world and lose our children.

In early America every school was connected to the church. The church was the educational institution to train the children. The church was not Sunday School, but Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, and Saturday school.

Matthew 28:19, “Go ye therefore, and teach...” God ordained the church to be the spiritual and educational arm. Place your kids in secular schools and the strength is gone.

Conclusion: If your relationship in the home, the church or the Christian school has become cold and indifferent, I strongly urge you to rekindle the fire. Love is a flame that needs to be refueled every day.

When your children leave for school every day, you better make sure that what they are being taught does not contradict what they are learning at home and at church.

1 Timothy 5:8, “But if any provide not for his own, and specially for those of his own house, he hath denied the faith, and is worse than an infidel.”

Parents! Do you actually see a personal walk with God in your family?

Prayer of Salvation

If you were to die today, are you 100% sure you would go to Heaven?

If not, would you be willing to pray this prayer with me?

‘Dear Jesus, I’m asking you to come into my heart and forgive me of my sins. I’m trusting you, Jesus, as my Saviour. Thank you for saving me. Amen.’ (Romans 10:9 and 10:13)

Prayer of Service

‘Lord, what wilt Thou have me to do?’ (Acts 9:6)

Getting Along... or Not! Lesson Learned

Toward the end of summer, an educator injured his spine and returned to school wearing a plaster cast around his upper back and chest. Under his shirt, the cast wasn’t visible at all.

The first few days of school proved trying, as his students were noisy, cocky, and disrespectful. When he had had enough, he walked to the window of the classroom, opened it, and sat down again. The breeze made his tie flutter. He picked up his stapler and stapled his tie to his chest.

From that moment through the end of the year, he presided over a class of model students.

Stop The Excuses

Romans 14:12

Dr. Bob Gray

Someone said, “My parents divorced, and that is what is wrong with me.” No! You do wrong because you choose to do wrong! You cannot blame your parent’s divorce for your poor choices in life. It is not your dad fault or your mother’s fault; it is your fault for making wrong choices. I know this is a little old fashioned, but it helped build a great nation until the humanists began to look for ways to skirt personal blame.

If you are a child of God, you have the Holy Spirit living in you to help you. If you choose not to accept His help, that is your fault, not His. The Bible teaches us that every one of us shall give account to God for himself. When a wife says that she hates men because she was molested as a child, that is just not true. The Bible does not say, “Non-molested women, love your husbands.” The fruit of the Holy Spirit can be partaken by any of God’s children. A part of that fruit is love and the power to be able to love in spite of the object. A child of God hates simply because he is not right with God.

Please do not misunderstand me! I have sympathy for anyone who is molested, but I refuse to have sympathy on someone who wants sympathy! The truth is, we are not the victim; we are the problem! It is time to look into a mirror and discover who is responsible for sins we commit because of injustices done to us. Injustice done to us never justifies sin committed against others. Vengeance belongs to God, not His children. The reason is, God wants to salvage, but we want to scrap.

Someone says, “I grew up in a ghetto where everyone stole.” No, you steal because you are a thief and you choose to be a thief. Our society has justified the Mendez brothers for killing their own parents. The riot in south central Los Angeles was attributed to poverty, but no one has a right to riot, steal, kidnap, rape, murder, or vandalize property.

Liberals have infiltrated the very fabric of our society. They pass liberal laws, teach liberal dogma, and produce liberal leaders for the next generation. Our Bible colleges are beginning to waver on the very inspiration of our King James Bible, and then we wonder why the pulpits are being filled with counselors instead of old-fashioned preachers. Never forget that every one of us shall give account of himself to God one day!

A Frequent Occurrence

Public school is not the only educational environment that the Left patrols for advancing their agenda and taking Christianity down a peg or two. Tammy Bruce relates the case of a young man that endured extreme prejudice from a college professor. The student at Lakeland Community College near Cleveland was in a class where he was required to wear a pink triangle to symbolize homosexual pride. The student refused to do so, citing that it was contrary to his moral beliefs. He asked for an alternative assignment but the request was rejected. He was an honor student and was given an F grade for failing to participate. Never was there a time when the class had students wear a gold straight arrow for straight pride week. The student was in danger of being expelled until his story was covered by local television news. It created such a negative publicity problem for the college that the school caved and changed the student's grade. What is so appalling about this incident is that this community college is supported by tax dollars.

Social Media

The Bible says nothing directly about social media, but that does not mean there is no Scriptural basis for concern. The Scriptures were finalized more than nineteen hundred years before the internet was invented.

However, we can examine principles found in the Scriptures that are pertinent to this modern-day phenomenon. There are several platforms for social media; but a few of the most common ones are Facebook, Twitter, Instagram and YouTube. Social networking can provide helpful and meaningful connections with family, business and friends; but once created, sites like Facebook make it easy for gossip and slander to reach a wide audience.

Its popularity is evident by its amazing growth. Facebook was started in 2004. Today it is one of the largest companies in the world, valued at seventy billion dollars.

The proper use of the internet must be carefully considered by every Christian. Most people are aware of the possibilities of predators lurking on sites and the explosion of pornography which is harming many marriages.

In addition, there are many less obvious pitfalls to guard against. Every one of the Ten Commandments is frequently violated through social media. Computers allow people to create gossip faster than ever before.

The audience cannot be just your friends or even those who live near you; it is the whole world! People can say almost anything online and get away with it, especially when they do so anonymously. Proverbs contains many warnings about our speech.

"It is not good to accept the person of the wicked, to overthrow the righteous in judgment.

"A fool's lips enter into contention, and his mouth calleth for strokes.

"A fool's mouth is his destruction, and his lips are the snare of his soul.

"The words of a talebearer are as wounds, and they go down into the innermost parts of the belly.

"He also that is slothful in his work is brother to him that is a great waster."—Prov. 18:5-9.

"A fool uttereth all his mind: but a wise man keepeth it in till after wards."—29:11.

A DRIVER VISITING THE BIG CITY FOR THE FIRST TIME STOPPED AT A RED LIGHT. BUT WHEN THE LIGHT TURNED GREEN, HE STAYED WHERE HE WAS. AFTER IT CHANGED SEVERAL MORE TIMES AND HE STILL DIDN'T MOVE, A TRAFFIC COP RAN OVER AND INQUIRED POLITELY, "WHAT'S WRONG? DON'T WE HAVE ANY COLORS YOU LIKE?"

Is Hell Real?

Introduction: The New Testament variously speaks of “eternal damnation” (Mark 3–29), of “eternal judgment” (Heb. 6:2), of “vengeance of eternal fire” (Jude 7). These terms necessarily forbid reconciliation of a sinner who is in Hell, with God in some future age.

First: Damnation in Hell is eternal damnation. The judgment of lost sinners is eternal judgment. Again the word for “eternal” in the above verses is the same Greek word used continually about eternal life or everlasting life. It is the same word used about “the eternal Spirit” in Hebrews 9:14. So, the damnation and the judgment of lost sinners is as eternal as the Holy Spirit, as eternal as the salvation and life that God gives Christians in Heaven. These terms make utterly impossible a future reconciliation with God of the sinners who go to Hell.

Second: Hell is a place of “everlasting fire” (Matt. 18:8, Matt. 25:41) It is a place where the fire is never quenched and the worm never dies (Mark 9:43-49), where the smoke of torment ascends up for ever and ever (Rev. 14:11). All these Scriptural statements indicate that Hell itself is eternal, everlasting, unchangeable. Small towns that never have an arrest tear down their jails. Penitentiaries turn off the electricity from the electric chair when it is not in use. Firing squads cease firing when there are no more victims. In New Jersey the guard at the whipping post does not go on flailing the air when the criminal has been removed. Why should God maintain the fires of Hell burning with brimstone; why should the smoke of torment ascend for ever and ever; why should the worms never die in Hell; if the victims will have all been taken out and carried to Heaven and reconciled to God? To express the thing shows how silly is such a question. The smoke keeps ascending from Hell because the fire keeps burning. The fires keep burning and the worms keep living in Hell because lost sinners remain there forever.

If the punishment of Hell were over, if the judgment on sin were done, if the shame and contempt were forever ended, then God would not maintain Hell forever. If Hell is everlasting, then the punishment of Hell logically would be everlasting.

The only way to believe in the future reconciliation of lost people in Hell and the ending of their torment by taking them to Heaven, is simply to ignore the plain statements of the Bible.

Third: Jesus said in Luke 16:26 that between Heaven and Hell “there is a great gulf fixed; so that they which would pass from hence to you cannot; neither can they pass to us, that would come from thence.” There is a great gulf fixed between Heaven and Hell; no one ever crosses it going either way. Lazarus could not leave Heaven to go down to Hell to comfort the rich man. The rich man in Hell could never cross that gulf to ascend to Heaven.

Notice the statement has two aspects. First there is a “great gulf” between Heaven and Hell. An enormous, unpassable distance separates the two, a barrier that cannot be crossed. And second, notice that this gulf is fixed. It is established. It is permanent. The gulf between Heaven and Hell will forever remain. Hence, of course, those who are in Hell can never go to Heaven. This is the plain meaning of Luke 16:26.

Showing Up Empty-Handed

“And the Lord said, Who then is that FAITHFUL and wise steward ...? Blessed is that servant, whom his Lord When He cometh SHALL FIND SO DOING.” (Luke 12:42-43)
“My beloved brethren, be ye STEDFAST, unmoveable, ALWAYS ABOUNDING IN THE WORK OF THE LORD!” (1 Cor. 15:58)

It is clearly evident. The crowns will go to those Christians who faithfully ran the race to the finish. Quitters will not receive crowns. Backsliders will be empty-handed. Compromisers will be saved “so as by fire.”

“Be thou FAITHFUL UNTO DEATH and I will give thee a crown ...” (Rev. 2:10)

I made a statement in the proceeding chapter that I want to repeat and comment on here. I said, “FAITHFULNESS here will bring joy and gladness There. UNFAITHFULNESS here will bring sorrow and shame There.” This is a very controversial subject. WILL THERE BE TEARS AT THE JUDGMENT SEAT OF CHRIST? Let me say here that I am not afraid of controversial subjects. What a cud is to a cow ... controversy is to me. Baptist preachers who ARE Baptist preachers will shoot anything that stinks and skin anything that wiggles!

I have been given the argument that there can be no tears in Heaven. Bosh! In panoramic perspective, John stood in the very Throne room of Heaven and WEPT.

“And I saw in the right hand of Him that sat on the throne a book written within and on the backside, sealed with seven seals. And I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, who is worthy to open the book and to loose the seals thereof? And no man in Heaven, nor in earth, neither under the earth, was able to open the book, neither to look thereon. And I WEPT MUCH ... and one of the elders (in Heaven!) said unto me, WEEP NOT:” (Rev. 5:1-5)

Resolutions of a Devoted Wife

Resolved, this year, whate'er the test,
To do for Christ my very best
In love to honor and obey,
And now He leads me, day by day;
In faith—to trust; He holds my hand,
He'll guide me safe to Canaan's land.
To ever pure and humble be,
And bear the cross He gives to me;
And not to think I've done my best
Until some souls have found sweet rest.

Changed By COVID

1 Corinthians 15:58

There's not a person I know that has not experienced some kind of change from COVID. COVID does not affect people equally. Some have no symptoms, some have mild symptoms, some cases are severe resulting in permanent damage to body organs, and some resulting in death.

We, as Christians, and as a church, must take extra precautions not to let COVID damage our spiritual walk. Has social distancing caused you to distance yourself from the Word of God and from prayer? Have you distance yourself from church seeing it so easy to find a reason to not be in the church service?

Instead of seeing the need to draw closer to the Lord, have you distanced yourself from Him?

Have you distanced yourself from getting out the Gospel and inviting people to church? It takes just minutes to canvas and leave a tract in a door. Do you have lost loved ones or neighbors with whom you can share the Gospel? We can still be faithful - and the need is still great!

Has COVID changed your standards in church? Do you find you're not even socially distant friendly?

Do you not take time to come to God's house dressed to honor Him? We should always be dressed for visitors and looking our best for the Lord. You may wear a mask, but God still sees all of you!

I remember Bro. Hyles said one day he was on the radio preaching on the Holy Spirit. He said his tie was undone and his appearance in general was a little unkempt. As he was preaching God's Word, and doing God's work he was convicted about his appearance. Though people couldn't see Him, God could see exactly how he looked as he was preaching.

Let us, as a church, remember to always put our best forward in everything we do for the Lord. Remember God is watching (and so are our children.)

God has been very gracious to our church during this difficult time of COVID. Don't let COVID change us! Let's be careful and cautious about COVID—and careful and cautious not to let COVID change us, or our church.

Our Statement of Faith

We accept the Holy Scriptures contained in the Old and New Testaments as being the verbally inspired Word of God and being perfectly preserved in the King James 1611 Bible. We do not believe it can be corrected or improved upon in any way. It is the final rule of faith and practice. Psalm 12:6-7, 1 Peter 1:23

We believe in the triune God, who is eternally in three persons—Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Matt. 28:19-20
We believe in the deity of Christ— His virgin birth, His sinless life, His death for the sins of the world, His bodily resurrection, His exaltation at God's right hand, His personal, imminent, and premillennial return.

1 Corinthians 15:3-4, 1 Timothy 3:16, Acts 1:11

We believe that all men are sinners and are guilty before God; in need of a Saviour. Romans 3:23

We believe that men are born again through faith in Jesus Christ; that they become the children of God, eternally saved; that the Holy Spirit dwells within every believer to guide and help him in his testimony and service.

Acts 16:30-31, Galatians 2:16, Ephesians 1:13, John 10:28

We believe in the bodily resurrection of the just and the unjust, the everlasting blessedness of the saved in Glory, and the everlasting conscious punishment of the lost in hell. We believe that all believers have a responsibility to get the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ into all the world. John 5:28-29, Luke 16:22-23, Rev. 20:11-15

We believe that Baptist churches were the first churches of Christianity and that Jesus founded a Baptist church. John 1:35-37, Acts 1:22
